

Virtual Public Health Event Organizing Fellowship
Part Time and Temporary
November 4, 2020 - January 29, 2021

Organization: Physicians for Social Responsibility Pennsylvania

Physicians for Social Responsibility (PSR) Pennsylvania promotes social responsibility by protecting health, the environment and communities through education, training, direct service, and advocacy. We speak out against violence – from the street level to the global level – and whether against humans or against the very biosphere in which we live.

Position -

Assist in planning, organizing, and executing a virtual public health event
Support communications, organizing, and events work with staff, volunteers, and fellows

Qualifications:

- Preference for education and/or experience in a related field (e.g., International Peace and Conflict Resolution, Environmental Studies, Medicine, Nursing, Public Health, Environmental Health, English, Marketing/Communications, or Public Relations).
- Must have an understanding of the basic principles of event planning, communications, public relations.
- Must be computer literate (working knowledge of Microsoft Office and Google suites) and preferably familiar with Zoom and/or other virtual meeting spaces
- Must have excellent written and oral communication and interpersonal skills.
- Pennsylvania residents and/or familiarity with Pennsylvania is preferred, and will be discussed upon the interview opportunity

Hours and Compensation:

Starting November 4, 2020 and ending January 29, 2021
10 hours per week / $10 per hour

Location:

Remote. There may be a few, optional in-person events to attend and document in accordance with social distancing requirements

To Apply: Qualified candidates should send your resume and cover letter to Tammy Murphy, Medical Advocacy Director at tammy@psrpa.org with Event Fellowship in the subject line. Applications without the required skills and experience will not be considered. NO PHONE CALLS PLEASE.
